AN OLD PLANTER PASSES AWAY

Louis Kahibaum, the veteran sugar planter, died in the Lihue Hospital last Tuesday. Born in Berlin, Germany, he arrived in Honolulu in beginning of the seventies on a whaling ship. He spent a year in one of Pfleger's sealing vessels. On his return to Honolulu, H. Hackfeld & Co. sent him to Kauai to fill a vacancy on Koloa plantation, and there he spent nearly all his remaining years. For a short time he was engaged on Wala-nae plantation, Oahu, and from some time in 1902 until his death he successively filled the offices of deputy sheriff and tax assessor for Koloa. He leaves one son, Paul, who is employed in the Koloa tax office. Mrs. Kahibaum died twelve years ago.
